What's Happening in KB

Dear Parents:

What a fun homecoming week. Thanks for helping your kids dress up, we had some great looking kids! This week we will be starting up our small reading groups which means we will try to do some independent work during centers. This can be hard for your child because they don't have a teacher to guide them through what they need to do. Please encourage your child to do things they know how to do on their own (zipping coats, getting their own glass and silverware at meals, etc.) Thanks again for all you are doing at home! Have a great weekend and don't forget to watch the weather, this time of year we may need coats for some of the day!

*Keep a list of our Vocabulary words somewhere at home so you can practice them at home too! (note cards on the frig. is a great way, just find the word and read it before getting a treat!)

Upcoming Events

Thursday

Every Thursday we will have a dress up day to go along with the letter of the week. This week we will have M&M day. Dress up like your favorite M&M color. (Creative ideas from the past: Print out the M&M character and pin it to your shirt, wear a brown or yellow or red or blue jumpsuit and make yourself look like the bag.)

KB Math Schedule!

Monday: Lesson 9.9 (P187-P188)
