What's Happening in KB

Dear Parents:

This week we will be working really hard on putting sounds together to make words. Please practice with your students at home (any 3 letter words or even nonsense words are fine just to get them putting sounds together.) We will also be starting our new chapter on place values (not subtraction yet!) but please continue to work on addition to 10. We are looking ahead to the 100th day of school which is next Wednesday! I will send home a note today about a special project to do at home for the big day. Thanks again for all the support you give your child. The help a child gets at home determines their success in the early grades! You are the best!!

*Back to cold weather this week! Please send all winter gear, it gets very cold on our playground!
